

THORNER PARISH COUNCIL MEMBERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code applies to all Members of Thorner Parish Council in all aspects of their public life. This means that the Council expects Members to follow this Code when they are conducting the work of the Council, representing the Council on any external organisation, and otherwise acting in their official capacity.

The Code of Conduct does not apply to what Members do in their private and personal lives.

PART ONE - STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

You must have regard to, and act in accordance with, the following standards of conduct and in accordance with any supplementary guidance or protocols agreed by the Council from time to time:

1. Selflessness

You should serve only in the public interest, and should never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person, organisation or group, or any other third party.

2. Honesty and Integrity

You should not place yourself in situations where your honesty and integrity may be questioned, you should not behave improperly and should avoid the appearance of such behaviour.

3. Objectivity

You must make decisions based on the information before you, having had regard to any professional advice provided to you and in accordance with your view of the public interest. You should make decisions on merit, this includes when making appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for awards or other recognition.

4. Accountability

You are accountable to the public for your decisions and actions and the manner in which you carry out your duties. You must co-operate fully and honestly with any scrutiny appropriate to your office. You should not undertake any action which would bring the Council, your position, or the position of Members generally, into disrepute.

5. Openness

You must be as open as possible about your actions and those of the Council, and should be prepared to give reasons for those actions.

6. Leadership

You must promote and maintain high standards of conduct by supporting these principles by leadership and by example, and should act in a way that secures or preserves the confidence of others.

You must have due regard to the impartiality and integrity of the Council's statutory officers and other employees<sup>1</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> Members may express themselves robustly in presenting their views, although where a Councillor engages in a sustained or systematic challenge of an employee which is unfounded or in any other way unreasonable, such conduct would fall within the scope of this Code. However an unintentional remark, made in isolation, is unlikely to amount to a failure to comply with the Code of Conduct.

PART TWO – REGISTRATION AND DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS

Registration of Interests

7. Within 28 days of your election or co-option, you must notify the Council’s monitoring officer of any ‘disclosable pecuniary interests’ which you have at that time.

10. A pecuniary interest is a ‘disclosable pecuniary interest’ in relation to you if it is of a type described in Appendix A, and either:
  - (a) it is an interest of yourself, or
  - (b) it is an interest of -
    - (i) your spouse or civil partner,
    - (ii) a person with whom your are living as husband and wife, or

You must inform the Council’s monitoring officer of any such gifts or hospitality within 28 days of receiving them so that the details can be entered into the Register of Interests.

Sensitive interests

12. If the nature of an interest is such that you and the Council’s monitoring officer consider that disclosure of the details of the interest could lead to you, or a person connected with you, being subject to violence or intimidation, the interest must not be included in any published version of the Register of Interests, or be entered into any copy of the register that is made available for public inspection<sup>2</sup>

Disclosure of disclosable pecuniary interests at meetings

13. The following provisions apply if you are present at a meeting of the Council or of any committee of the Council, and you are aware that you have a disclosable pecuniary interest in a matter to be considered, or being considered, at the meeting.

<sup>2</sup> Instead the Register of Interests may state that the Member has an interest the detail of which are withheld under section 32(2) of the Localism Act 2011. If the Member is required to disclose such an interest in a meeting, the Member need not disclose the interest, but merely the fact that the Member has a disclosable pecuniary interest in the matter concerned

15. If the interest is not entered in the authority's Register of Interests and is not the subject of a pending notification, you must notify the Monitoring Officer of the interest before the end of 28 days beginning with the date of the disclosure.

17. You may not:
  - (a) participate, or participate further, in any discussion of the matter at the meeting,
  - (b) participate in any vote, or further vote, taken on the matter at the meeting (unless the Member has requested and been granted a relevant dispensation by the Standards and Conduct Committee), or
  - (c) remain in the room during the discussion or vote on the matter.

Disclosure of other interests at meetings

18. Where you are present at a meeting of the Council, or any committee, of the Council, and identify any other significant interests which you feel should be declared in the public interest, such interests may be declared to the meeting.
19. In such circumstances you must consider whether your continued participation in the matter relating to your interest would be reasonable in the circumstances, particularly if the interest may give rise to a perception of a conflict of interests in the matter under discussion.
