

Parish Council Vacancy.

There is currently a vacancy on Thorner Parish Council following a recent resignation.

The vacancy can be filled by Co – Option as no election has been requested.

Co -Option is a process whereby the Parish Council consider written applications received from interested persons who are eligible, at a Parish Council meeting and invite the applicant to attend the meeting to support their application.

The Parish Council then select someone from the applications received.

If you need any information about qualification for being a Parish Councillor or just want more information about the role,
